On February 10, 2001, at 9:45 a.m., the SIS Office conducted an interview with inmate Gaytan #54862-198. Inmate Gaytan stated the [redacted] got word a week ago about an assault on [redacted] by the [redacted] and [redacted] in Leavenworth. Inmate Gaytan said the [redacted] gang members did not back up the [redacted] on their assault on the Texas Syndicate.

On February 10, 2001, at 9:50 a.m., the SIS Office conducted an interview with inmate Hammons #29501-077. Inmate Hammons provided the following statement: I was playing bocci ball with another inmate on the bocci ball court closest to the weight cage. I saw hordes of Mexican inmates running my way from the handball court. Half of them went around the weight cage and trapped two guys. Thirty to forty of them attacked one guy playing dominoes. He got up and started knocking them down. He made his way to the inside basketball court for more room. Another inmate grabbed a bocci ball and ran towards the inmate getting assaulted by the wall near the bikes. He threw the bocci ball at his head. I could not recognize him. One inmate got hit with a red water jug. The water jug ended up near the soccer field. One inmate from Jim Wells A was leading the group assaulting one inmate. (Inmate Castro). Another inmate involved had a [redacted] tattoo on his neck. It appeared the [redacted] jumped the [redacted] I don't know why it happened, the [redacted] don't run anything on the yard. I think the [redacted] would get hurt if they returned to the compound. People don't like what they did to the [redacted]

On February 10, 2001, at 9:50 a.m., the SIS Office conducted an interview with inmate Hodges #09177-035. Hodges provided the following statement: I was in the weight cage working out when I heard people running. I saw a large group of Mexican inmates running. Half of them went towards the bocci ball court, half went around the weight cage like it was planned.

On March 7, 2001, at 11:40 a.m., the SIS Office conducted an interview with inmate Brock #10471-035. Inmate Brock was provided a photograph spread sheet for identifying inmates.
